

Regardless, I wanted to thank you for an amazing course! I found the topics incredibly interesting and relevant to my personal life and future medical practice. I was a little apprehensive about how an online course would go for me, since I tend to be more engaged in in-person settings, but you made it very manageable (in such a way that I found myself wishing I had more time to dedicate to the topics).